WELCOME TO GREATER COPENHAGEN

You are invited to a one-of-a-kind welcome event tailored specifically for internationals in Greater Copenhagen. Taking place in Øksnehallen on 25 & 26 September, International Citizen Days brings together public authorities, private organisations and local communities for two inspiring days of help and guidance on everything from housing and career to culture and leisure. With an exciting programme offering insightful talks, debates, fun activities and a lively fair in a 'hyggelig' setting, we hope to make your transition from global to local citizen as smooth as possible.
